Michael,

It is very important that you get your story straight here, the fact is that Google have already stated that they didn't take the site down, and you have stated in your e-mail on November 29, 2:55 pm, "Just don't ask - but I have got the blog site shut down." Now it is very important that you tell me how you got the site shut down. It is clear that the site shut down as you sent that e-mail, so it must have been you who shut it down all I want from you is a straight answer to the following question:

How did you shut down the site?

You are being very evasive for no good reason and now you're changing your story, and I am unsure why. So if you can answer that question that would be great, I may have further questions for you and I may even need you to appear as a witness, which since you have nothing to hide you won't have a problem with, I am sure. After all you started in your e-mail at 2:07pm today "it will only be your court action which will find out the truth. At the end of the day we need to find out who is behind it."

Yours Aye,
Matthew
